AGENT'S STAMP

Please read carefully these terms and conditions of contract. In completing and submitting the Booking Form, you agree to be bound by these conditions which constitute the agreement between the World Expeditions Travel Group Pty Ltd ACN 001 424 568 (World Expeditions) and you. No variation of these conditions will be effective unless in writing and signed by a person so authorised by World Expeditions.

In these terms and conditions reference to "World Expeditions representatives" means trip leaders and staff of World Expeditions and its officers, employees, agents, licensees, guides and other third parties and representatives and the land management authorities in each country in which the trip is conducted, or any of them.

1. How to Book

To register for one of the Community Million Dollar Challenge trips, you must contact your nearest Flight Centre agency and will be provided with a registration form which you will need to complete and pay a non-refundable $150 registration fee. Some trips may require a non-refundable additional fee in order to secure a permit and the detailed trip notes will provide details where this is the case.

2. Prices

The trip prices quoted represent the most current prices, are per person and are subject to minimum numbers. Where minimum numbers are not met by the payment date, a small group surcharge will be offered to ensure the trips operation. Refer to the trip notes for all trip inclusions and exclusions. World Expeditions tries its utmost not to increase trip prices, however sometimes increases are outside its control. World Expeditions reserves the right to amend trip prices at any time. Amendments may be necessitated for many reasons including, but not limited to, increases in ground operator services exchange rate fluctuations, increased fuel costs, airfares, airport charges, or the need to engage alternative air or ground operators. Any increase in trip prices must be paid prior to the departure date.

3. Payment

TRIP PAYMENT: The trip price is based on the land content and is payable to World Expeditions 70 days prior to departure. Prices do not include international or domestic flights to the destination. Please ask your Flight Centre Agent to quote your airfares. The trip price is quoted in Australian dollars and payments must be made in Australian dollars. If your trip payment is not received by World Expeditions by the due date you will be taken as having cancelled the trip and cancellation charges in accordance with condition 5 will apply.

FUNDRAISING TARGET: In registering for a Community Million Dollar Challenge Trip you are committing to fundraising a minimum $2000 for the charity associated to the trip. The spirit of the Community Million Dollar Challenge campaign is the collective fundraisers achieving their individual fundraising target to achieve the overall $1,000,000 objective. All funds raised, will be dispatched to the associated charity at the commencement of the trip departure.

4. Amendments/Transfers

AMENDMENTS: To make amendments to your trip arrangements, you must notify your Flight Centre Agent in writing. Each amendment to your trip arrangements will incur a $100 administration fee and you will be liable for any increase in operational expenses occasioned by the amendment.

TRANSFERS: If you wish to transfer from one trip to another, you must notify your Flight Centre Agent in writing after which the transfer will take effect subject to the following. Transfers may only be made to another trip to commence within 12 months of your original departure date and the following transfer charges will apply:

- If your notice is received more than 70 days prior to your original departure date, a $100 transfer fee will apply. In addition, any increase in airfares or operational services or extra permit/deposit penalties will apply; or
- If your notice is received within 70-35 days prior to your original departure date, 50% of your original trip price will be forfeited, or less than 35 days prior 100% of your trip price will be forfeited.

Note: Note: Any transfer from one trip to another is subject to availability and the agreement of World Expeditions, however, the transfer of a trip from one person to another is not permitted.

5. Cancellations

If you wish to cancel your trip, you must notify your Flight Centre Agent in writing where after the cancellation will take effect subject to the following:

- If cancellation takes place more than 70 days prior to your departure date your registration fee shall be forfeited and your fundraising page with the $100 headstart payment that will have been deposited with GoFundraise, shall be distributed to the recipient charity.
- If cancellation takes place between 70 & 35 days prior to your departure date 50% of the trip price will be forfeited.
- If cancellation takes place less than 35 days prior to your departure date 100% of the trip price will be forfeited.

The trip price is quoted as a package. No partial refunds or credit will be given for services not used.

6. Health & Fitness Requirements

You must be in good health and physical condition and are strongly advised to follow our pre departure fitness training recommendations. You will be required to submit a medical questionnaire as proof that you are fit enough to participate in the trip 70 days prior to departure. If you have booked a trip graded 1-7 you may complete the medical form yourself, unless you have a pre-existing medical condition or are over 70 years of age, in which case, you must have your doctor complete your medical form to certify you as fit to participate. For trips graded 8 to 10 you will be required to have your doctor complete and sign your medical questionnaire. If you suffer from severe muscular, chest heart or bronchial disorders, or if you are a severe asthmatic, or have high blood pressure, you are strongly advised against participating. Trips take place in remote areas where there is little or no access to normal medical services or hospital facilities for serious problems. Evacuation, where necessary, can be prolonged, difficult and expensive. Medical and evacuation expenses will be your responsibility but insurance may cover you depending on the circumstances. While we do not discriminate by age, due to the extreme nature of our mountaineering trips we strongly discourage participants over 60 years of age. World Expeditions reserves the right in its absolute discretion to refuse a participant the right to participate on a trip.

7. Medical Disclosure

You declare and warrant that:

- you are in good health and mental and physical fitness at the time of booking this trip;
- you have disclosed to World Expeditions every matter concerning your health and mental and physical fitness of which you are aware, or ought reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to World Expeditions' decision to permit you to go on the adventure trip;
- additionally that pre-existing medical conditions are disclosed to your travel insurer and cover sought;
- immediately upon any adverse change in your health or fitness that may be likely to affect World Expeditions' decision to permit you to go on the adventure trip, you will notify World Expeditions in writing of any such adverse change;

- you acknowledge that the obligation to disclose under this condition continues from the time of booking the trip through to departure and extends for the duration of the trip.
- World Expeditions are permitted to disclose medical information to our consultant doctor for an opinion;
- World Expeditions' consultant doctor may exclude you from a trip if he/she deems it necessary;
- you have taken the necessary precautions to immunise/vaccinate for the destination you are travelling to;
- you have taken out a travel insurance policy that adequately covers you for medical eventualities and or pre-existing medical conditions.

8. Tour Leaders

- World Expeditions' trip leaders take their responsibilities seriously and if for any reason a trip leader believes, in his or her absolute discretion, that you should not participate in the trip, before your departure, he/she may exclude you from the trip. In this event, you will be offered the option of taking another trip considered suitable for you or a full refund. If for any reason during a trip the trip leader considers you should not participate further due to you committing an illegal act, or in the opinion of the trip leader, your behaviour is causing or is likely to cause danger, distress or annoyance to others, or your fitness or health (mental and/or physical) is questioned, he or she may direct you not to continue and you must follow the trip leader's instructions. In this case you will not be entitled to any refund.
- World Expeditions reserves the right to change, at any time, the trip leader of any trip. If that happens, World Expeditions will try to ensure that the alternative trip leader has expertise commensurate with that of the original trip leader. Any such change by World Expeditions will not give rise to any right on your part to cancel the trip or claim any expenses, loss or damage which may be suffered.

9. Complaints

If during the course of your trip you have a problem, please bring this to the immediate attention of the trip leader or relevant supplier (eg. Transport provider, hotelier). If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, please contact your World Expeditions consultant by email or phone and they will endeavour to assist you. If your complaint cannot be resolved locally, please follow this up in writing within 30 days of your return home by writing to our Operations Department at your local World Expeditions office. Please keep your letter concise and to the point in order for us to quickly identify your concerns and liaise with the relevant parties to respond to you as soon as possible.

10. Cancellation due to tour booking numbers

World Expeditions reserves the right to nominate a small group surcharge where a trip has not reached minimum numbers and to cancel the trip. In case of a trip cancellation you will be given a full refund of the trip price. You will not be entitled to claim any additional amounts or seek any compensation for any injury, loss, expenses or damage or for any loss of time or inconvenience which may result from such cancellation (including but not limited to visa, passport and vaccination charges, gear purchases or non-refundable flights and taxes).

11. Route changes, Postponement, Cancellation or Delay

World Expeditions reserves the right to:

- cancel or modify any routes within the trip or objectives set out in the itinerary; or
- substitute different or equivalent routes within the trip in place of cancelled or modified routes; or
- postpone, cancel or delay (either in relation to the departure or arrival times or the duration of the trip) any such aspect of the trip if, in the absolute discretion of World Expeditions, it is necessary to do so due to inclement weather, snow or icy conditions or circumstances that are otherwise likely to be hazardous or dangerous or due to any other adverse or threatening conditions whether political or military or terrorist or otherwise or if, in the absolute discretion of World Expeditions, there is a likelihood of any such event occurring which may impact upon the safety of the participants, or if an act or omission of a third party prevents the trip or the aspect of the trip being undertaken in accordance with your booking or for any other reason considered necessary by World Expeditions. In the event of any change, modification, cancellation, postponement or delay under this condition, you acknowledge that you will have no right of refund of the trip price (whether in whole or in part) and no right to claim compensation for any injury, loss or damage or other additional expenses incurred by virtue of the change, modification, cancellation postponement or delay.

World Expeditions also reserves, in its absolute discretion, the right to cancel any trip due to any government travel warning or advice, or any change in such warning or advice. In this event, condition 5 applies as if you had transferred or cancelled the trip at the date that World Expeditions cancelled the trip due to the governmental travel warning or advice. Travel insurance may compensate you depending on the circumstances.

12. Itineraries and brochures

Itineraries and other details are published in good faith as statements of intention only and reasonable changes in the itinerary and related items may be made where deemed necessary or advisable by World Expeditions. The information contained in World Expeditions' website, brochures, trip notes and pre departure information is to the best of World Expeditions' belief, correct at the date of publishing.

13. Insurance

Personal travel insurance is not included in the trip price. It is a condition of booking a trip with World Expeditions, and your responsibility to ensure that you are adequately insured for the full duration of the trip in respect of illness, pre-existing medical conditions, injury, death, loss of baggage and personal items and cancellation and curtailment. You must provide evidence to World Expeditions that you have obtained personal travel insurance. You must ensure that your personal travel insurance covers all of the activities you expect to participate in.

14. Proof of citizenship or information required to travel

It is your responsibility to obtain proper identification or proof of citizenship as required by the authorities of the destination to which you are travelling. You will not be entitled to a refund if you are denied boarding or entry on any basis, including without limitation, improper documentation (ie, visas) or failure to provide information. It is a requirement of many countries that your passport is valid for six months beyond the date of your return home to your home country and it is your responsibility to check you have such validity.

15. Airlines and other transport providers

Any material published by World Expeditions, the Booking Form and these conditions of contract are not issued on behalf of, and do not commit any airline whose services are used or proposed to be used in the course of the trip. In the event that an airline's proposed travel or fare schedule is amended or cancelled, such amendment or cancellation will not be considered a cancellation of the trip by World Expeditions. Any flights or other transport forming part of the trip arrangements are subject to the conditions of the carrying airline or other transport entity, which in most cases limits the airlines' or other transport entity's liability to passengers in accordance with applicable international law and conventions.

16. Force Majeure

If World Expeditions is prevented (directly or indirectly) from performing any of its obligations under this agreement by reason of act of God, strikes, trade disputes, fire, breakdowns, interruption of transport, government or political action, acts of war or terrorism, acts or omissions of a third party or for any other cause whatsoever outside World Expeditions' reasonable control, World Expeditions will be under no liability whatsoever to you and may, at its option, by written notice to you either cancel the trip or take any other action as specified in condition 11.

17. Assumption of risk

You acknowledge and agree that:

- by the very nature of adventure travel and trekking holidays, they are more challenging and demanding with a commensurately higher level of risk compared with conventional holidays, and involve potential exposure to injury and possibly death;
- in the countries and regions in which adventure travel is undertaken, standards of accommodation, transport, health care, hygiene, safety and service provision generally are often not as high as those standards in your country of residence and may require flexibility and patience on your part;
- the additional dangers and risks associated with adventure travel may include difficult and dangerous terrain; high altitude; extremes of weather, including sudden and unexpected changes; political instability; remoteness from normal medical services and from communications; and evacuation difficulties in the event of illness or injury;
- the enjoyment and excitement of adventure travel is derived in part from the inherent dangers and risks associated with adventure travel and that those inherent dangers and risks are a reason why you wish to undertake the adventure trip, and
- you have submitted your booking for the trip after giving due consideration of relevant travel information including, without limitation, any relevant information or advice given by the governments of Australia, New Zealand and Canada, the British Foreign Office and US Department of State and that it is your responsibility to acquaint yourself that information or advice.

For the above reasons you therefore accept the inherent and increased dangers and risks associated with the proposed adventure trip and the accompanying risk of injury, death or property damage or loss.

18. No Liability

You acknowledge and agree that:

- To the fullest extent permitted by law and unless caused by the negligent or reckless conduct of World Expeditions, World Expeditions will not be liable for any claims, actions, loss or damage arising out of personal injury or death, or property damage, loss of service including consequential, exemplary or punitive damages which may arise in connection with your participation in any tour.
- World Expeditions will not be liable for any breach of any law by any person with whom you travel on the tour; and
- you may not rely on any representations concerning the tour made by World Expeditions which are not contained in these conditions.

19. Release and discharge

To the extent permitted by law, by accepting the additional inherent dangers and risks associated with the tour, you release, waive and discharge all World Expeditions representatives (including our ground operators in the country/countries in which your tour will take place) from all claims, actions or losses for personal injury or death, property damage, loss of services, loss of profits, consequential, exemplary, indirect or punitive damages or otherwise which may arise:

- out of or occur during your travel in connection with the tour or any activities conducted in conjunction with the tour unless caused by the reckless conduct of World Expeditions representatives, or
- in connection with any optional activities which you may undertake during the course of your tour but which do not comprise part of your tour itinerary and you accept that any assistance given to you by World Expeditions representatives in arranging such optional activities will not render the World Expeditions representatives liable to you in any way.

20. Australian Consumer Law

Under the Australian Consumer Law, statutory guarantees apply to the supply of recreational services of the kind offered by these terms and conditions. "Recreational services" is defined as including activities that involve a significant degree of physical exertion or risk undertaken for the purposes of recreation, enjoyment or leisure. These guarantees mean that World Expeditions, as the supplier, is required to ensure that the recreational services it supplies to you are rendered with due care and skill and are fit for their intended purpose.

Under the Australian Consumer Law, World Expeditions, as supplier, is entitled to ask you to agree that these statutory guarantees will not apply to you. If you sign this form you will be agreeing that your rights under this agreement, if you are killed or injured because the services provided were not rendered in accordance with these statutory guarantees, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this condition.

To the extent permitted by law, you hereby exclude, release and forever discharge all World Expeditions representatives from all liability for any and all claims, loss, damage, cost or expense arising from your death or your suffering physical or mental injury or any other condition, occurrence, activity, form of behaviour, course of conduct or state of affairs as specified in section 139A of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (except in the case of liability arising from the reckless conduct on the part of the World Expeditions representatives) and connected with your participation in the recreational services which comprise the trip.

21. Privacy

You permit World Expeditions to collect personal information from you, or from your medical practitioner, regarding your health and medical condition. You acknowledge that this personal information may be disclosed to World Expeditions representatives in order to ensure your safety and well being but will not be used by them for any other purpose.

22. Images

By signing these terms and conditions you certify that your image may be used without charge by The World Expeditions Travel Group for promotional purposes including but not limited to the website, printed promotional items and promotional presentations, unless you notify us in writing that you do not wish to have your image to be used for these purposes.

23. Waiver

A party will not be deemed to have waived any of its rights or remedies under these conditions or at law by allowing any time or indulgence or by not exercising any right or remedy arising out of any default by the other party.

24. Severance of conditions

If any part of a condition is illegal, unenforceable or invalid, it is to be treated as removed from the conditions, however, the remainder of the conditions are not altered.

25. Jurisdiction

This agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties will be construed and take effect in accordance with and be governed by the laws of:

- Victoria, in the case the booking is made in the state of Victoria, or
- NSW, in the case the booking is made elsewhere in Australia.
