welcome to World Expeditions

For over 50 years, we've been creating high-quality, expedition-style adventures for active travellers with a curious spirit. From our very first trek in the mountains of Nepal to pioneering remote routes across all seven continents, our journeys are built for those who want to truly explore – not just visit.

At the heart of what we do is a simple philosophy: take the paths less travelled.

This means travelling with care, supporting local communities, minimising our impact, and unlocking experiences that most travellers will never have.

If you're ready to go further and dig deeper, we invite you to join us on the Vietnam to Cambodia Cycle: Ho Chi Minh to Angkor Wat, a journey that captures the essence of a unique adventure.

why travel with World Expeditions?

Our guided cycling trips in Vietnam combine carefully designed routes with the support of experienced local guides and a dedicated crew. Each journey is fully supported, with logistics, accommodation, meals and transport managed throughout, allowing a smooth and structured travel experience. Riding through rural landscapes, villages and key regional highlights, the presence of guides provides local insight, cultural context and on-road support, while vehicle backup and luggage transfers ensure comfort and flexibility. Backed by World Expeditions' operational expertise, these trips offer a reliable and well-supported way to explore Vietnam by bike.

World Expeditions will endeavour to arrange for single travellers to share accommodation with another participant of the same gender, however if we cannot match you up a single supplement will be applicable. If you prefer not to share, a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. Please refer to our website for the additional cost.

the trip

This cycling journey travels from Ho Chi Minh City through the Mekong Delta and into Cambodia, combining rural riding with cultural exploration. The route passes rice paddies, waterways and local villages, with highlights including Cai Rang floating market, Tra Su bird sanctuary and a Mekong River journey to Phnom Penh. In Cambodia, you explore Phnom Penh, cycle through Koh Dach's weaving villages and visit the archaeological site of Sambor Prei Kuk. The journey concludes in Siem Reap with cycling around the Angkor temples and visits to communities on Tonle Sap Lake.

detailed itinerary

DAY 1 Join Ho Chi Minh City

Join the trip in Ho Chi Minh City and meet the local support team of guides, mechanics and drivers. A bike fitting is scheduled at 4pm with a transfer to our bike depot so please ensure you arrive in plenty of time for this. We can assist with pre and post tour accommodation should you wish to avail of it, otherwise make your way to our group hotel and bike fitting. Once our bikes have been assigned, we'll enjoy by a casual dinner with our team to learn about the days ahead. Ho Chi Minh City is Vietnam's largest city and a key gateway to the Mekong Delta.

Accommodation: The Odys Boutique Hotel or similar meals: D

DAY 2 Cycle Ben Tre to Tra Vinh (60km / 37mi)

Transfer to the Mekong Delta and begin cycling towards Tra Vinh. The route passes coconut groves, canal bridges and flat rural roads with sections through plantations. The Mekong Delta is a key agricultural region known for coconut and rice production. The day ends in Tra Vinh City.

Accommodation: Cuu Long Hotel or similar
meals: B,L,D

DAY 3 Cycle Tra Vinh to Can Tho (70km / 43.5mi)

Cycle through flat landscapes dominated by rice paddies and canals. A visit is made to Ba Om Pond, a historic Khmer 800 year old site known for its lotus blooms. The Mekong Delta is one of Vietnam's primary rice-producing regions, shaped by centuries of river-based agriculture. The day ends with a transfer to Can Tho.

Accommodation: Ninh Kieu Riverside Hotel or similar
meals: B,L

DAY 4 Cycle Can Tho to Long Xuyen (60km / 37.3mi)

Begin with a boat journey to Cai Rang floating market, a key trading hub on the river. Floating markets developed as a response to the delta's extensive canal network, where waterways remain central to commerce. Continue cycling along quiet riverside roads through fruit-growing regions and rural settlements. The delta waterways support trade and daily life for local communities. Last stop would be a visit to Bang Lang Stork Sanctuary. The day ends in Long Xuyen, with a vehicle transfer option available for the final section

Accommodation: Hoa Binh Long Xuyen Hotel or similar
meals: B,L,D

DAY 5 Cycle Long Xuyen to Chau Doc (60km / 37.3mi)

We will drive 60 minutes via our private shuttle to the seat of the Southern Kingdom of Vietnam as it was recognized 2000 years ago. We'll visit a museum in the area to learn more about the history and then set off on the 55km journey to Tra Su National Reserve and Bird Sanctuary. The route includes raised pathways across flood-prone farmland. Tra Su is known for its wetlands, birdlife and canal systems. The day ends in Chau Doc, with the option to transfer by vehicle if required.

Accommodation: Chau Pho Hotel or similar

thoughtful travel

Our World Expeditions adventures are grounded in a deep commitment to regenerative travel, going beyond minimising harm to actively restoring and enriching the places we visit. We partner closely with local communities, ensuring that our trips support cultural preservation, fair livelihoods, and community-led initiatives. Each expedition is designed to protect and regenerate natural ecosystems through low-impact practices, climate action, and education that fosters respect for biodiversity. We prioritise meaningful connections between travellers and place, encouraging a sense of stewardship that lasts well beyond the journey. By embedding sustainability into every layer of our operations, we aim not only to explore the world responsibly but also to leave it healthier, more resilient, and more vibrant for future generations.

trip grading

Introductory to Moderate

To determine the grade of a particular adventure we consider a number of factors.

These include the distances cycled, the condition of the terrain, the altitude, and the length of the trip. The Ho Chi Minh City to Angkor Wat Cycle is graded moderate.

This trip does not take place at altitude and most cycling surfaces are well paved roads, however some days cycling are over rough un-graded surfaces and the climate in Cambodia is very hot and humid. Expect cycling time to average up to 7 hours per day.

In order to complete this trip we advise that you undertake regular exercise – swimming, cycling, jogging, for at least 45 minutes three or four times a week for a minimum of three months prior to your departure.

DAY 6 Travel to Phnom Penh

Travel by speedboat from Chau Doc to Phnom Penh. The journey follows the Mekong River and crosses into Cambodia. The ride will take about 4 hours and 30 minutes. Visa at the border will be arranged by the crew. Please prepare a paper copy of your e-Visa and USD35 undamaged cash for the border.

You will have the rest of the day to explore Phnom Penh, Cambodia's capital city.

Accommodation: Ohana Phnom Penh Palace Hotel or similar
meals: B,L

DAY 7 Explore Phnom Penh

Explore Phnom Penh by cyclo along the riverfront and central boulevards. The city reflects Cambodia's historical influences and modern development. Phnom Penh developed as a royal and colonial centre, shaped by both Khmer and French architectural influences. The remainder of the day is at leisure.

Accommodation: Ohana Phnom Penh Palace Hotel or similar meals: B

DAY 8 Cycle Phnom Penh to Kampong Thom (50km / 31.1mi)

Travel by boat to Koh Dach before cycling through village communities. The route includes visits to weaving villages and local cultural sites. Traditional silk weaving remains an important local industry. The day ends with a transfer to Kampong Thom.

Accommodation: Kampong Thom Palace or similar
meals: B,L,D

DAY 9 Cycle Kampong Thom to Siem Reap (50km / 31.1mi)

Cycle towards Sambor Prei Kuk through rural landscapes and forested areas. The temple complex dates to the pre-Angkorian period and consists of brick structures set within woodland. Sambor Prei Kuk was an early capital of the Chenla Kingdom, predating Angkor by several centuries. Continue cycling through countryside before transferring to Siem Reap.

Accommodation: The Sanctuary Residence or similar
meals: B,L,D

DAY 10 Cycle Angkor Temple Complex (45km / 28mi)

Cycle through the Angkor temple complex including Angkor Wat. The route links temple sites via forested paths and quiet roads. Angkor is a UNESCO World Heritage site built in the 12th century as a Hindu temple and later became a Buddhist site, reflecting the evolution of the Khmer Empire.

Accommodation: The Sanctuary Residence or similar
meals: B,L

DAY 11 Cycle Siem Reap and Tonle Sap Lake (50km / 31.1mi)

Cycle through rural villages and rice fields towards Tonle Sap Lake. The route passes traditional Khmer houses, pagodas and local communities. Tonle Sap is Southeast Asia's largest freshwater lake and plays a vital role in Cambodia's seasonal fishing and agricultural systems. The day ends in Siem Reap with a group farewell dinner.

Accommodation: The Sanctuary Residence or similar

adventure travel

By its very nature adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected. In remote and developing countries do not expect standards you are used to at home. Remote areas are sometimes unpredictable and itineraries may be altered. To get the most out of your adventure it is important that you are flexible, positive and eager to take on all the challenges that arise. If you are uncertain about your suitability for this trip we recommend that you speak with your consultant or travel agent.

places of interest

Angkor

Angkor Wat, one of the great wonders of the world, is not one temple but an expanse covering several square miles near Siem Reap, containing the remains of an early civilisation as well as many temples. Angkor was an early Cambodian civilisation that flourished and prospered from about 800 to 1400 AD. The majority of the temples were built between the 6th and 13th Centuries. Many of the temples are in excellent condition, however a large amount, are in poor repair and in need of extensive restoration. The surrounding forest has grown into and destroyed several of these magnificent works of art. Cambodian Kings of this period built many cities near Siem Reap and from Angkor the Khmer empire ruled over a vast territory that extended from the tip of what is now southern Vietnam northward to Yunnan in China, and from Vietnam westward to the Bay of Bengal. In the 9th Century, the royal palace of the Khmer had been built on a mountain named Phnom Kulen. Later the capital was moved to what is now known as Angkor Thom. In its heyday it is believed that it was home to a population exceeding 1 million, making it the largest populated city of the time. Many temples were built in Angkor Thom. These temples rank as some of the most artistic architectural wonders of the world. On the walls of these temples, there are sacred scenes of Cambodian life and mythology. So far, there is no satisfying reason why there was a dramatic decline of the Angkor Empire. In the centre of Angkor Thom is the Bayon. It has numerous towers, each with four faces looking into the directions of the four winds. Nearby there are two large areas that were once lakes and were used to store water for drinking and irrigation. Each covers an area of 17 square kms. Today, only the western lake still carries water, although only about half the original size. The temple of Angkor Wat is probably the finest monument in Cambodia. It covers an area of about 2.6 square kilometres and it is the largest religious temple in the world. It was built in the 1100's to honour the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat later became the tomb of the Cambodian King who ordered its construction. The features found in and around the site of Angkor Wat are too numerous to list but it is guaranteed that your first sightings will leave you feeling completely overwhelmed!

country information

VIETNAM

Vietnam is a country of remarkable cultural richness and natural beauty, stretching over 1,600km (1025 mi) kilometres from the cool mountains of the north to the tropical waterways of the Mekong Delta. Its landscapes are wonderfully diverse, ranging from terraced rice fields and forested highlands to limestone karsts, sandy beaches and bustling river systems. Cities such as Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City offer a lively mix of French colonial heritage, modern energy and traditional Vietnamese charm. Vietnamese culture is shaped by a long history of regional influences, including Chinese, Cham and French traditions, blended with a strong national identity. Buddhism, Confucian values and ancestor worship all play a role in daily life, reflected in temples, family rituals and the country's strong sense of community. Food is a highlight of any visit, fresh, fragrant and regionally distinct, with northern, central and southern kitchens each offering their own memorable flavours. Travel in Vietnam is increasingly smooth thanks to good infrastructure, reliable domestic flights and well-connected transport networks. While major cities are vibrant and fast-paced, much of the countryside remains relaxed and deeply traditional. With its friendly people, rich cultural heritage and striking variety of landscapes, Vietnam offers a rewarding and engaging travel experience for visitors.

CAMBODIA

Cambodia is a land of contrasts, ancient temples, vibrant rural life, and a history that moves you. While Angkor Wat is the headline act, it's the warmth and resilience of the people that leave a lasting impression. Beyond the temples, you'll find shimmering rice paddies, stilted villages and wetlands teeming with life. Engaging with Cambodia's recent past can be sobering, but also deeply meaningful. Today, community-based tourism offers genuine connections – whether through village walks, homestays or social enterprises. Travel here is more than just sightseeing, it's an experience that stays with you.

VIETNAM

Vietnam's climate can vary markedly from region to region due to its extreme latitudinal span. You can go from soaring temperatures and extreme humidity in Ho Chi Minh City to cool and mild conditions in the central highlands to frosts and even occasional snow in the mountains of the north. Generally two distinct seasons prevail in Vietnam: from November to April, the temperatures are usually fairly cool, especially in the north of the country. In the mountainous areas of the north, temperatures can be as low as 0°C (32°F) and there can be a constant light drizzle. Hotter temperatures and heavy monsoon rains characterise the months from May to October, although you can experience rain at any time. The hottest months of the year are June, July and August. In Hanoi, average daily temperatures vary from a minimum of 13.7°C (57°F) to a maximum of 19.3°C (67°F) in January; to a minimum of 26.1°C (79°F) to a maximum of 32.9°C (91°F) in July.

CAMBODIA

Cambodia has a tropical monsoon climate with three distinct seasons: A rainy/monsoon season from May to October, a cool dry season from November to February, and a hot dry season from March to April. Average daily temperatures vary little from month to month, but April is the hottest month of the year, with average daily temperatures in Phnom Penh ranging from min 25°C (77°F) to max 35°C (95°F). Cambodia is generally hot, although there are transitional periods, with the best time to visit the area being between November and January, before it gets extremely hot.

dietary requirements

Provided we are advised in advance of your departure we are able to cater for vegetarian diets and can assist with medically recommended diets (allergies and intolerances). Please ensure you discuss your requirements with us well in advance (at least 1 month prior to your trip) to determine whether we can cater to such dietary requirements on your chosen adventure. Please note that options are likely to be limited in very remote locations or alternatives may be more expensive or unavailable. There may be times when those with special requirements may need to provide their own food. We are unable to guarantee a peanut-free or allergen-free trip, and therefore, we strongly encourage that travellers with life-threatening or severe allergies take all necessary medical precautions to prepare for the possibility of exposure. Passengers must travel with all necessary medications for food allergies and be capable of self-administering these medications.

equipment provided

We provide high-quality, modern equipment designed for comfort and reliability. Please provide your height to your consultant prior to departure to ensure the correct frame size is reserved for you.

Mountain Bike

The Trek Marlin is standard for this trip. It is a lightweight and versatile hardtail mountain bike, well suited to Vietnam's diverse touring terrain. Its stable handling and front suspension fork provide added comfort and control on rough roads, gravel tracks, and uneven rural paths, making it a reliable choice for riders who want flexibility across surfaces.

The Giant electric bike E+ Fathom equipped with hydraulic disc brakes and powerful motors, these allow you to enjoy mountainous terrain without physical strain or Cube Gravel bikes are available as an upgrade. Please request at time of booking.

Maintenance & Adjustments

Our bikes are used by different riders throughout the season and may require slight adjustments before you commence. At least one additional replacement bicycle is supplied for each group as a backup. Basic tools are provided, and emergency on-call support is always available.

Personal Comfort & Safety

Saddles & Pedals: You are welcome to bring your own saddle or clip-in pedals; our team will gladly fit them for you. If you have a saddle you are comfortable with for long distances, we highly recommend bringing it.

Gel Seat Covers: These are highly recommended for added comfort and are well worth the small investment.

Helmets: Standard cycling helmets meeting international safety requirements are provided. However, for the best fit and personal comfort, we recommend bringing your own.

Support Vehicle & On-Route Assistance

A dedicated support vehicle accompanies the group throughout the journey, positioned to provide assistance as required. This ensures consistent on-road support across all stages of the ride. The support team provides mechanical assistance for minor repairs and adjustments, as well as water, snacks and scheduled rest stops. There is also the option to transfer in the vehicle if needed, allowing flexibility to manage fatigue or varying riding conditions.

accommodation on the trip

In cities and larger towns, accommodation is in carefully selected 4–5 star properties that offer a high standard of comfort, service and location. These hotels are typically centrally located or well positioned for easy access to key areas, allowing you to make the most of your time both on and off the bike. Where possible, properties are chosen for their character and atmosphere, reflecting the destination while still delivering consistent quality.

pre and post tour accommodation

If you would like to extend your stay in Vietnam we would be more than happy to assist with your pre or post tour arrangements. Please ask your reservations consultant for further details.

what you carry

A support vehicle is used to transport your gear and you will have access to this at certain times of the day. However you may want to carry with you a small bag to put into the panniers (provided on your bike) containing, your camera, water proof jacket, sun screen, snacks and water.

non exclusive trips

Please note that this trip is not exclusive to World Expeditions clients and is operated by our partners in Vietnam. Groups are pleasantly informal, usually comprising of a range of nationalities and are aimed at healthy, active participants looking for an adventurous holiday.

vehicles & safety

During the course of your trip, we will use a variety of vehicles, all of which are fit for purpose and the conditions encountered. It should be noted that laws governing transportation safety may differ from those in your home country and whilst wherever possible, vehicles with seatbelts are provided, on occasion some vehicles may not have seat belts fitted.

Vietnam

If you have a valid Australian, New Zealand, Canadian or United States passport, you are eligible to apply online for an E-visa. This can be a single-entry or multiple-entry electronic tourist visa, valid for a maximum of 90 days. It allows you to enter Vietnam via the port of entry indicated in the visa approval notice only. Apply for an E-visa through the Vietnamese Government's e-visa portal <https://www.xuatnhapcanh.gov.vn/>

United Kingdom – British Nationals can enter Vietnam for up to 45 days without requiring to apply for a visa. For stays longer than 45 days a visa must be obtained prior to arrival in Vietnam, apply for an E-visa online through the online portal <https://www.xuatnhapcanh.gov.vn/>

E-visas are issued for stays of up to 90 days of entry only and are valid for multiple entries. A Vietnam eVisa typically requires 4-6 working days for processing.

For stays longer than 90 days, please contact the nearest Embassy or Consulate of Vietnam.

To apply for an E-Visa for Vietnam, you must make sure that:

Your passport is valid for at least 6 months following arrival date and has at least 2 blank pages;
